It may necessitate a great deal of research to obtain the name of this Patterson ancestor who was a Revolutionary War hero. Since we know he had a son named George, too, may have been John. Records on "John Patterson" of North Carolina have been taken from the DAR lineage book.

PATTERSON FAMILY BACKGROUND

The Patterson family, Scotch Irish, belonging to a sect of the Clan MacLaren, descended from a James Patterson, Gentleman, who obtained a lease of land in the quarter of Mongragom early in the 17th century. James's father went from Glengarnock, Ayrshire, Scotland to settle in County Donegal, Ulster.* It is not certain when the Pattersons began coming to America. Bishop Meade in his book "Old Church Ministers and Families of Virginia" gives the list of Vestry for the St. Peter's Church from the year 1685 to the year 1758. In that list was one David Patterson.

It may necessitate a great deal of research to obtain the name of this Patterson ancestor who was a Revolutionary hero. Since we know he had a son named John, his name, too, may have been John. The following records on "John Patterson" of North Carolina have been taken from the DAR lineage book.

[1] John Patterson born in Orange County, North Carolina 10 October 1760; died in St. Louis, Missouri 30 Jan. 1839. He had two wives, Keziah Horneday and Sarah Johnson. Their children were: William, Elisha, John, Saunders, Nellie, Annie, Keziah, Lydia, Rhoda and David by the second marriage.

[2] John Patterson (1732-1812) was born in Argylshire, Scotland and died in Fayetteville, North Carolina. He married in 1756 Isabelle McDuffie and the name of only one son is known, Daniel.

[3] John Patterson, Sr., Orange County, whose will is recorded will book "B" pages 128 and 129 County Clerk's office, Orange County, North Carolina and reads as follows:

"In the name of God Amen. I, John Patterson Senior of the County of Orange and State of North Carolina being through the abundant Mercy and goodness of God tho weak in body yeat of sound and perfect understanding and member do constitute this my last will and testament and desire it may be received by all as such.

First, I will that all my Debts be paid by my Executrix and Executor hereafter named.

Item: I do give and bequeath unto my loving wife Margaret with whom I have lived a number of years peacable and in quiet, one Horse to the value of twenty pounds, one feather bed, and furniture, and a negroe woman named Cate and after her death or marriage to be equally divided between my two sons David and Isaac.

Item: To my daughter Jean the sum of five shillings to be paid by my Executrix and Executor.

Item: I do give to my son William one hundred acres of land part of the tract I now live on.

Item: I do give to my son James the Plantation he now lives on containing three hundred acres.

Item: I do give to my son John all my wearing apparell except one great coat.

Item: I do give to my daughter Margaret Abbot one Scarlet Cardinal or the value thereof in money.

Item: I do give and bequeath to my daughter Mary Patterson the sum of five shillings to be paid by my Executors.

Item: I do give to my daughter Agnes one horse to the value of twenty pounds, one feather bed, and furniture, two cows and calves and one year old, one Spinning wheel, also five pounds in money.

Item: I do give and bequeath all the remaining part of my estate to my two sons David and Isaac, I do Constitute my wife Margaret and my son David Executors of this my last will and testament and trustees for my son Isaac.

Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 10th day of July 1790.

This will was duly approved in open Court
May term 1791.

The story reads that our John Patterson, son of Revolutionary Hero, left the state of his nativity, North Carolina, moving to the territory of Ohio, where some of his children were born. Later as Kentucky opened for settlements, he went there and then moved on to Tennessee. His children were: William, John, Joseph, George Washington, David and Kate.

George Washington Patterson (1791-1879) our ancestor, was reared to manhood in Tennessee and married in Alabama to Miss Elizabeth Mc Collom.

"The Twentieth Century History of Southwest Texas" - volume II - Lewis Publishing Company.

In 1847 he sold his property in Alabama and removed with his family and his slaves to Texas first locating in St. Augustine County. In the fall of that same year he removed to Smith County, and by 1851 sold and moved to Uvalde County, Texas. Cousin Gussie Austin remembers her mother, Nancy Ann Patterson Leakey, saying that her sister, Elizabeth Sophronia Patterson Dillard was ten years of age when the family came to Texas, which would establish the year as 1841.

Elizabeth McCollum Patterson was the daughter of Newman McCollum (Cullom) who was of Scotch and English descent. It is understood that in the McCollum branch of the family nine brothers migrated from Scotland to South Carolina and from there dispersed throughout the Southland. Newman McCollum was born and reared in South Carolina. From study of the census records his mother could be Ann McCollum of Chester County, South Carolina. The family of Newman McCollum appears in the 1830 census of Marion County, Alabama.

The following is a copy of the last will and testament of Newman McCollum:

"In the name of God Amen. I Newman McCollum of Fayette County of the state of Alabama being mindful of my mortality do this 19th day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fiftythree (1853) make and publish this my last will and testament in manner following: (viz)

First, I desire to be decently and privately burried without any funeral pomp and with as little expense as may be and all my just debts to be paid out of perrishable property.

Secondly, there is notes which I have against my Son James H. McCollum to the amount of Seventeen Hundred and thirty dollars and twentyfive cents, also an amount against Joseph McCollum my Son of two hundred and forty dollars which I desire to stand without drawing any interest.

Thirdly, I desire all my lands and negroes to be valued by three disinterested men as cash the negroes names are as follows: Jim,

Mariah, Bob, Jiles, Mary, Sisley, Leah, Bill, Emeliero, George, Aaron, Ples, Jiles Jr., Tom, Frances, Frank, Mary, Margaret and also the further increase of these negro women if any at my death with all my household furnature with all my lands and tenements and also all my perisable property to be valued and divided or sole and the money divided in four parts, one to James H. McCollum, one to Joseph McCollum, one to Elizabeth Patterson and the heirs of her body and one to the Heirs of my son Henry McCollum deceased namely, Martha, Mary, Nancy & William McCollum also all the rest of my Estate both Real and personal of what nature or kind soever it may be not hereinbefore particularly disposed of I desire May be equally divided among my several children herein before named and lastly I do hereby constitute and appoint my son Joseph McCollum and my friend Alfred W. Wimberly Executors of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I have set my hand and affixed my seal this 19th day of November in the year of our Lord 1853

This will was filed for probate on 4 November 1857 and was duly probated on 18th Nov. 1857. Book vol. 4 pages 414 and 415, record of Wills & Estates of Decedants, Fayette Co., State of Alabama.

It is believed that the oldest well-kept house in Uvalde County is the rock house built by George Washington Patterson and his 80 to 90 slaves on the banks of Sabinal River. The state grant to G. W. Patterson and John Bowles specified 160 acres, Survey #1386 in Section #6, 13 miles south, 60 west from D'Harris on Rio Sabinal. By 1853 two settlements had been made on the Sabinal River, one mile and six miles of present Utopia and Sabinal. The first was called the William Ware Settlement. The second settlement was established by G. W. Patterson, John Leakey and A. B. Dilliard* and Allen Dilliard, father of A. B. Dilliard, paid to W. L. Ray, Avarila, his wife $400.00 for 120 acres.

Survey #383 of 320 acres of land patented to Antonio Gray and situated on East bank of River Sabinal. This settlement soon became known as the "Patterson Settlement" and rightly named. With G. W. Patterson Sr. and his wife Elizabeth came his children, John C. (who married Ann Little) and George (who later married Lizzie Bowles, daughter of the well-known Indian Scout-John Bowles- who was killed by Indians [tomstone inscription in the old family cemetery on Cardray property reads: "Massacred by Indians Oct. 28, 1859"]); A. B. Dilliard who married one of the daughter, Elizabeth; and William A. Brown who married another daughter, Talitha Patterson. Another son, Newman McCollum, and a daughter, Nancy, wife of John Leakey, arrived at the settlement the following year. Other families at the settlement were W. S. Hiller and T. E. Taylor and Pepper brothers.

Uvalde County deed records

From the beginning of Uvalde County and on through the years the Patterson family have been well represented in the development of the County. In a special election held April 21, 1856, the following County Commissioners were elected; Reading W. Black (founder of Uvalde, first called Encina), Aaron Anglim, William M. Pepper and George Patterson. The Commissioners met at Encina on May 12, 1856 and declared the County organized.

John Bowles was appointed a Commissioner to select location for 'county site'. On August 16, 1858 H. McC. Patterson was elected Sheriff and A. B. Dilliard one of the Commissioners. Mr. Dilliard and family were among several who assisted in the organization of the Methodist Church. The following were either charter or early members of the Masonic Lodge: Newman McCollum Patterson, George Washington Patterson Jr., J. J. Henry Patterson, Will Braham Patterson, Allen B. Dillard, A. George Dillard, John Leakey, James Dalrymple, Henry J. Shane, Hy. J. Bowles, William Anthony Old, John Warren Watkins, W. W. Collier, and G. W. (Fuzzy) Van Pelt Sr.

Newman McCollum Patterson after his terms as Sheriff, was elected tax collector in 1865; and as County Judge two terms in 1880. Henry Patterson, son of Newman, was at one time Sheriff of Uvalde County and later tax assessor. Andrew Jackson Spencer, Hy J. Bowles and Miss Zena Dalrymple all served long terms as County Clerk of Uvalde County. At present the Great, Great, Great granddaughter of George Washington Patterson, Mrs. Evelyn Davenport is County Clerk.

John Leakey left the Patterson Settlement about 1855 moving up to the Frio Canyon. Newman McCollum Patterson soon followed locating on Frio River and created Rio Frio Settlement. Allen B. Dillard bought land June 18, 1872 from James Hays (who had an original grant from the Republic of Texas), Survey #64 in Section #3, eight miles south of the town of Uvalde in Leona River fertile Valley. Soon Ed Taylor, John C. Patterson, A. J. Spencer bought also in Section #3, later followed by James Dalrymple. On November 3, 1874 the following men made an agreement of co-partnership known as "The Leona Irrigation and Agricultural Association"; W. B. Bowles, Greenville Bowles, Chas. T. Race, T. E. Taylor, A. B. Dillard and A. J. Spencer.* William A. Brown and his wife Talitha Patterson were the only members of the Patterson family to remain at the Patterson Settlement which later became known as "Shane Settlement".

*Notes from Abstract of Title on Survey #64, section #3, Uvalde Co. Texas as compliments from Hensarling Abstract & Title Co., Uvalde, Texas.

When this closely-knit Patterson family broke away from the Patterson settlement on the Rio Sabinal most of the property was bought by Henry J. Shane, an enterprising frontiersman, who first married Nancy Elizabeth Dillard, daughter of Allen B. Dillard and granddaughter of George Washington Patterson Sr. Mr. Shane lived in the interesting old rock house until his death in 1911 at which time the property was divided among the eight children by his two different wives.

Reverend William L. E. Shane, a retired Christian Church minister, inherited the old homestead. He and his wife, Bessie, have taken a great deal of pleasure and pride in restoring the charm of this old rock house and adding modern improvements. The separate house for dining and kitchen area which had burned about 1880 was restored and now is converted into a model apartment. From the six children of George Washington Patterson and Elizabeth McCollum there were forty-nine grandchildren and one hundred and twenty-six great grandchildren.
